Natural Movement for Health, Growth and Joy

Roberta Meilleur moves people in all senses of the word. She delivers valuable life-lengthening information on movement, health and change with down-to-earth practicality, unique expertise, participatory learning and contagious delight. Her style sparkles with passion, humor, and encouragement, inspiring people to better inhabit and respect their bodies. She has a knack for leaving every group uplifted and a lot looser.

For over 25 years, Roberta has been sharing the wonders of natural movement and body awareness with thousands of people in presentations, workshops, classes, private sessions, a book and videos. She has presented at such venues as the Hollyhock Retreat Centre, Harrison Festival of the Arts, the Filberg Arts Festival, Strathcona Park Lodge and conferences in Canada and beyond.

"I'm passionate about assisting bodies to free themselves from unnecessary tension, aches, pains, patterns, injuries and aging by offering practical body awareness information in an inspiring, playful, experiential way. It is my highest intent and fulfillment to see bodies awoken to their inherent nobility and fullest function – and to do so simply, safely, effectively and joyfully."
